MARGE NELSON - VILLAGE TRUSTEE TO BE SUED BY VILLAGE

The Village Trustees during their regular meeting on Monday night gave the go-ahead to Village board attorney, Ken Clark, to pursue the action necessary against Marge Nelson and her husband for non-payment of fees. The total amount being sought by the village is $804.09. The fee stems from the installation of sewer lines on Drom Court. This was broken down to $729.09 for the Nelsons proportionate share for installation of the sewer line and $75 for the hood-up to their home making it a total of $804.09 due.

Ken Clark advised the board that he would send a letter to the Nelsons' explaining the action and giving them 10 days to make good on the fees. At the end of 10 days if payment is not made, Clark will then file suit on behalf of the village. Clark said there were two avenues by which the suit could be pursued. One would be concerned with a breach of a verbal agreement made between the Nelsons and the village at the time of installation. The second would be after the sewer lines had been installed, the Nelsons hooked into the line from their home without first getting a legal right and permit to do so.

In other action at the board meeting, Mayor Toft reported that the village had received from the state the permit to expand its sewer plant, but as yet no grant for funds either from the state or federal government. Mayor Toft said that he had directed letters to be sent to our various state and federal representatives explaining the village needs. Toft also has had a number of personal meetings with some of the representatives. To date one reply has been received and that was from Representative William Murphy, who said he would do everything possible to help.

The board voted to place on file a letter from Robert Bemis, chairman of the planning commission. The letter directed to the village board and Mayor Toft recommended that they would hold any further action on annexation proposals until the village comprehensive development plan was complete and the various ordinances affecting these annexations and possible developments were brought up to date.

The Antioch Grade School Board is now in the process of considering the following four building recommendations. These tentative considerations are being studied in view of the conservative enrollment study for district 34 and the new regulations for full recognition by the State department. Each year the State will be sending out a team of inspectors to check school buildings, curriculum, instruction, etc. If the school passes, it will then be recognized as an eligible institution for state aid.

The recommendations below are now being considered. It should be emphasized however, that these recommendations

Saturday, December 16th, was a very memorable day in Antioch as the High School Referendum was finally passed. The passing margin was slim however, with 1,467 affirmative votes compared to 1,310 negative votes. A total of 2,798 votes were cast, which was the largest turnout that the school has ever seen.

This is the fourth time that the high school has run the referendum, that called for an increase in the Education Fund Rate from 92 cents to $1.32 per $100 assessed evaluation.

The breakdown for Saturday's voting was:

Precinct 1 - Antioch high School

1,047 yes

1,036 no

18 spoiled

2,101 TOTAL

Precinct 2 - Lake Villa Central School- 177 yes

..... 134 no

..... 2 spoiled

..... 313 TOTAL

Precinct 3 - BJ Hooper

243 Yes

140 No

1 spoiled

384 TOTAL

It can be observed that Precinct one, Antioch High School had the largest turnout of voters but supported the referendum by only 11 votes. Precinct 3, BJ Hooper, had the second most votes, and the largest percent of affirmative votes.

When the referendum was first run on April 24, 1971 there was a total of 1,908 votes, with 1,680 opposed to only 214 in favor of the referendum.

The referendum was run two other times with their totals as follows:

March 25, 1972

2,561 TOTAL VOTES

965 Yes

1,585 no

11 spoiled

June 10, 1972

2,651 TOTAL VOTES

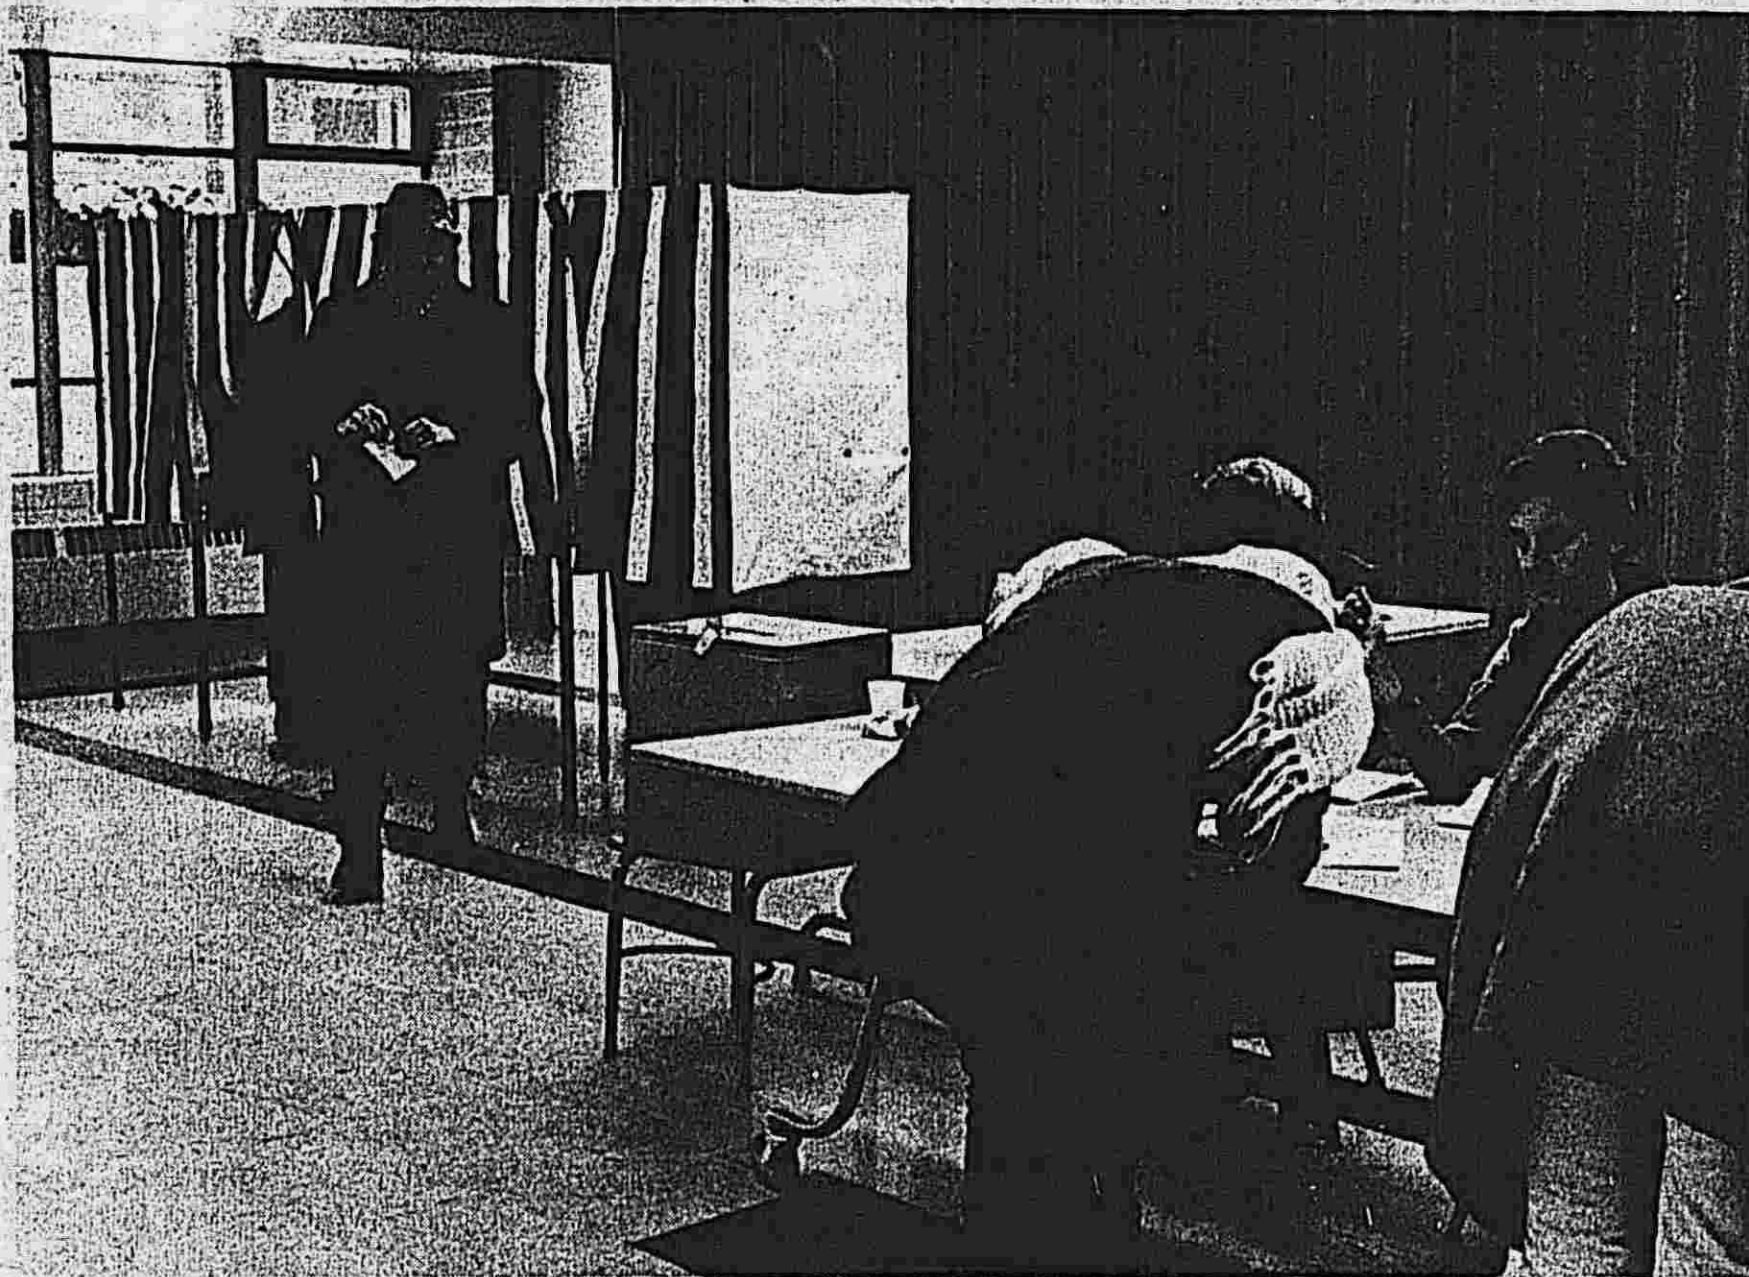

1,138 Yes

1,486 No

27 spoiled

High School Superintendent, Warren Polley, was optimistic and felt that the referendum would pass.

Polley said, "I would contribute the success of the referendum to the work of many, many, many, concerned people. There is no way of naming them all. If the referendum hadn't passed, it would not have been because the people did not know what the issues were. There were so many well informed persons, that were talking to people."

Mike Warren casts his ballot on the day of voting for the referendum.

BUILDING CONSIDERATIONS FOR DISTRICT 34

are merely being studied and no final determinations have been made.

1.) Kindergarten through eighth grade - 18 classroom school for occupancy in September of 1974, or as soon thereafter as possible. The location will be somewhere near the northwest corner of the Village Limits.

2.) Either - an addition onto the Oakland School for a total potential enrollment of 700.

or the first section of a new three section school somewhere in the Oakland Area. Either alternative will be needed by 1976. If the second choice is made, which will involve a new location, then there will also be a library learning center developed at the Oakland School. (Library Learning Centers are going to be a requirement by the State Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI). The learning center will be developed by 1975.

3.) Plans to develop a learning center to fulfill OSPI regulation in the present Antioch Grade School Kindergarten through fifth grade by September of 1975.

4.) Plans for a general improvement and updating of the interior of the Channel Lake School by September of 1975.

GOOD-BYE OLD FRIEND

"there is nothing that has yet been contrived by man, by which so much happiness is produced as by a good tavern or inn." Samuel Johnson 1776.

When Samuel Johnson uttered these words on that day in March in 1776, he could have had little knowledge that century's later, people would be relating his words to a place they had known and loved in Antioch, Illinois. He couldn't have known how precisely his words would ring true and how much happiness could be generated from one building on Main Street.

The building has been known by several names throughout its long history, but is best known by two, "Morley's Tavern" and "Bud's Tavern." The building is now in the process of being torn down to make way for a parking lot, but the memories of its past are still standing strong in the hearts of so many of its old friends.

One of these friends is David Nisson, who has constructed some of the old building's past history in the following story:

"The December 6th edition of the Antioch News included a photo of a bottle with a note inside indicating that the old Main Street Tavern was built in 1912. This article brought forth much comment among the old timers and the patrons of the old place.

Bud Holtz, a former owner and operator of the place was consulted and his memories provide us with a great deal of its history.

Also, the raising of the structure provided evidences that the building certainly was constructed initially much before 1912.

Bud recalls, for example, the reason for the canopy and the post in the front of the tavern were built because of a reluctance on the owners part at the time, J. J. Morley, to move the building forward to conform with a new Village front line many years ago. This then suggests that the bottle was possibly placed in the wall at the time of remodeling.

The wrecking crews work uncovered evidence of living quarters above the saloon. (Bob Wilton Sr. remembers playing in these quarters as a boy, says his son, Bob Jr.) The rooms were abandoned when a high metal ceiling was installed, which was in keeping with the style of the times.

Bud also recalls that until 1946 the tavern was heated by an old fashioned coal stove. When asked how the pipes in the kitchen and wash rooms were kept from freezing, his comment was, "by a little prayer and a lot of blow-torching."

The wrecker's bulldozer also uncovered evidence of upstairs and downstairs windows which were covered over by the brick veneering. The original structure was framed with drop siding. Some of these boards were 14 to 16 inches in width.

During prohibition, the original owner, J. J. Morley used it for a time as a real estate office, then it served as a sales room for boats and motors by Ed Dressel and a partner.

After they moved it stood vacant until 1933 when Bud opened it as a tavern....

He operated it until 1961 and it was closed as a tavern when Casey Cassella moved the license to another location. The original back-bar is now in service somewhere in the Rockford area, and rumor has it at the Wagon Wheel."

Phyllis McMillen, who is the daughter of J. J. Morley, also contributed information to the building's early history.

Many, many years ago her grandfather, William Linden Morley, came to the United States from England. He was only 14 years old and had run away from home. He then went to live with his uncle Joe Morley, who lived in Indian Point in Grass Lake. A few years later the Civil War began and William joined the 96th regiment. He returned from the Civil War with a young bride of 16. Her name was Mary and she was from Tennessee.

William and Mary bought the property on Main Street and built a wooden building there. The building first served as a wheelwright shop, as William had been an apprentice in that trade before he left England. When people came to the shop they often had to wait for their merchandise and while they did, Mary often gave them something to eat and drink. Before they know it the Wheel shop had evolved into a tavern.

William and Mary had three children, two girls and one boy, John. When John was 14 years old his father died and left his business to him, which he ran until 1933.

Phyllis remembers many things about the days when her father ran the tavern. She recalls: the many poker games that drew sophisticated players from Chicago; the large garden that was behind the tavern, (Which is now a village parking lot), where her father grew sweet corn that was served free in the tavern and that brought fame to her father's business, and that her father was the ONE democrat in the town at that time.

John Morley has been described as a man with black curly hair, that just wasn't afraid of anybody. He was truly his own man, who had so many loves. He was involved in horse racing and he enjoyed Shakespeare. He was an avid golfer and loved to read history. Morley's golf partners included Eddy Wells, who was President of the Wells Forwarding Company, and who was also the father of Jack Wells, now the current Chief of Police in Antioch, Clayton Smith, who was president of the Cook County Board, and George Gerber, who was Smith's administration aide.

Morley's love for horse racing took him all over the states, he also raced in cutters on Lake Bluff in the winter time.

The tavern served as an area distributor for Schlitz beer and Phyllis remembers how all of the neighborhood kids used to hitch a ride on the back of the beer wagon down to the lake for a swim during the summer.

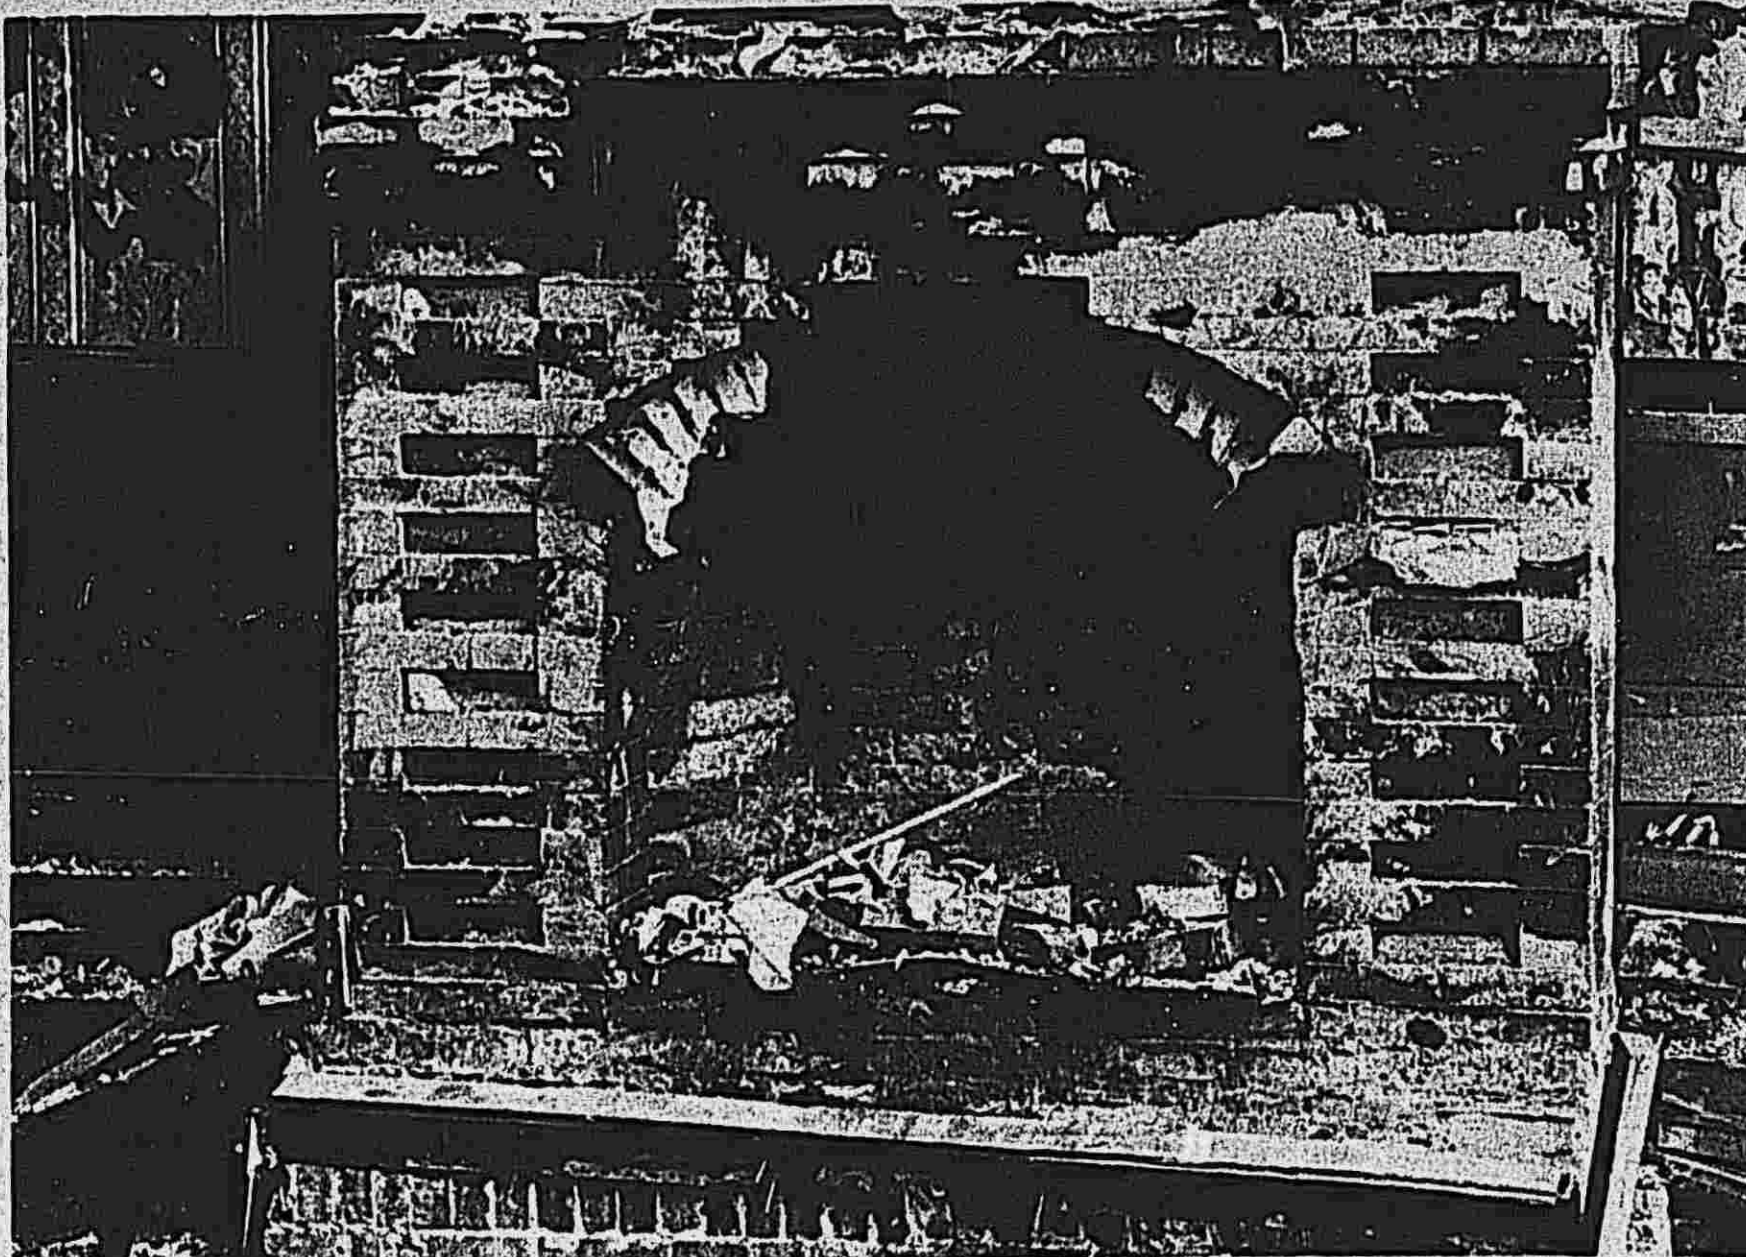

Morley was never seen without his cane, in fact he had a large collection of them from all over the world. He not only used his cane for walking, but he also used it as a very effective tool for speedy communication.

Bill Brooks, who is the President of the State Bank of Antioch, has many memories of the tavern too.

His mother was Antioch's first telephone operator, when she began there were only two phones in Antioch. The switchboard was housed in the old drug store next to the tavern. Mrs. Brooks used to place the bets from the tavern next door to Chicago. Gambling was legal back then and people used to bet on everything, from the cock fights to the ball games.

Mr. Brooks also recalls how on the way to school he would take a long-cut through the alley behind the tavern to visit with the roosters. He said, "I got to know some of those birds pretty good."

The early days of Antioch hold many fond memories for Mr. Brooks. He remembers the sawdust on the floors, the horse and buggys, drinking a nicker bottle of warm pop, while waiting for his dad on the bench in front of the tavern, and driving cattle through town with his uncle on their way up to Trevor. The tavern in those days was strictly a man's place and women entered through a side door, called a "family entrance", and remained in a back room. After prohibition days, things were different of course, and the tavern became a social place for all.

Many a fire and many a story were spun in front of this now departed fireplace in the old Tavern. The building is gone and fireplace with it - but the stories that were spun are better than ever. (staff photo)

Phyllis McMillen commented "It just became a common gathering place and it seemed like after every party wherever it was held, everybody ended up in the tavern to finish of the night."

Police Chief, Jack Wells, commented, "Bud Holtz ran a really good saloon, you wouldn't be afraid to take your mother in there or anybody else."

Wells, like so many others, has many fond past memories that were born in the tavern. He used to go into the tavern with his father, Eddy, as a boy, he ate frequent Saturday night turkey dinners with his family, and then after the World War II he remembers many welcome home partys there.

He said, "If you have never spent a New Year's Eve party in the tavern, then you have never really lived. Many of those old parties will never be forgotten."

Wells can also confirm the fact that the tavern was used at one time as a boat and motor place, as his father bought him and his brother a Johnson Giant Twin Motor back in the late twenties or the early thirties.

And as David Nisson concluded his story....

"Although the tavern is gone, much, much more will be told and retold about the old place, its whiskey point, smells and aromas, its rummy and hearts games and the Saturday night turkey plate dinners, a little bit of horse betting, and the endless string of characters, some waiting for a live one, and others trying to down a drink.

Ah, the tavern business in Antioch will never be the same - Good-bye old friend, the Main Street Tavern...."

WHEN THE CHIIPS ARE DOWN

a total of 2,798 people voted this last weekend either for or against the referendum. However, the ballot was cast, is not important, what really matters is how many people took part, almost double from previous tries.

...many people worked very hard to help pass this referendum, and to win over those who opposed it. Parents put away holiday shopping, Christmas cards, baking and much more, to devote the many hours that were needed to make its passage a reality. It is through these self-sacrificing, praise-worthy efforts that the referendum was a success.

...Its passage also says something for the people of the high school district. When the chips are down, they came through.

...Those who took part in the referendum should have a feeling of accomplishment knowing that they helped make it possible for at least the high school to continue a quality educational program.

HAVE A HAPPY AND SAFE HOLIDAY

...Christmas can be such a happy time. It not only acknowledges the birth of Christ, but it is also a time to renew the spirit of Christianity. It is a time of giving, when we remind our families and friends that we really love each other. This love can be shown in many ways, through the customary giving of gifts or maybe just by receiving that special Christmas card from somebody that is far away.

...After a glance at the many holiday goodies most conscientious dieters decide to fight beastly calories after the New Year and then all stops go out. Strong tasting eggnog and punch flow freely. But even though it is a special time of the year, many things go on as usual. People still have to drive and many safety precautions have to be remembered. For some, this will be their last week of life as they will soon be part of that long holiday death toll.

...Over half of the deaths that will occur over the holidays will be a result of drunken driving. Don't be one of these victims and be careful not to let your families and friends be one either.

...Don't let an accident mar this Christmas, take some precautions and have a warm and joyful holiday.

UNIT DISTRICT STUDY DROPPED

On December 12, at the Grade School Board Meeting, the Board decided to drop plans for a Unit District Study due to the lack of interest that was demonstrated by other districts. Only two districts of the approached districts indicated any interest at all.

The project would require more support, since it would be rather costly for only a few schools to carry on. The study would have been carried on by a professional group and it would have given the system some vital projections. It would have presented the schools with an assessment of total building needs in the terms of the present buildings in all of the districts. Future administration and transportation needs would also have been projected.

These studies have been conducted throughout the State of Illinois. Waukegan has just completed such a study and is now under a unit district system with all kindergarten through 12th grade classes under one building and administration head.

At the same meeting the Board decided to take no action in the court case concerning Santino's Development. The board rejected the possibility of being co-defendant in the suit, because of financial reasons. The board also felt that the suit will only affect them indirectly. It would affect them more directly if the Emmons and Grass Lake Schools were attached to District 34.

Previously, the board had protested the development on the basis that it may create a situation which Emmons couldn't live with, and Antioch would eventually inherit the problems that would be created by the development.

VILLAGE BOARD NOT TO INTERVENE IN P.U.D. SUIT

At the regular Village Board meeting on Monday night the village Trustees decided not to enter into the court case attempting to prevent the developer of the Antioch Country Club Planned Development.

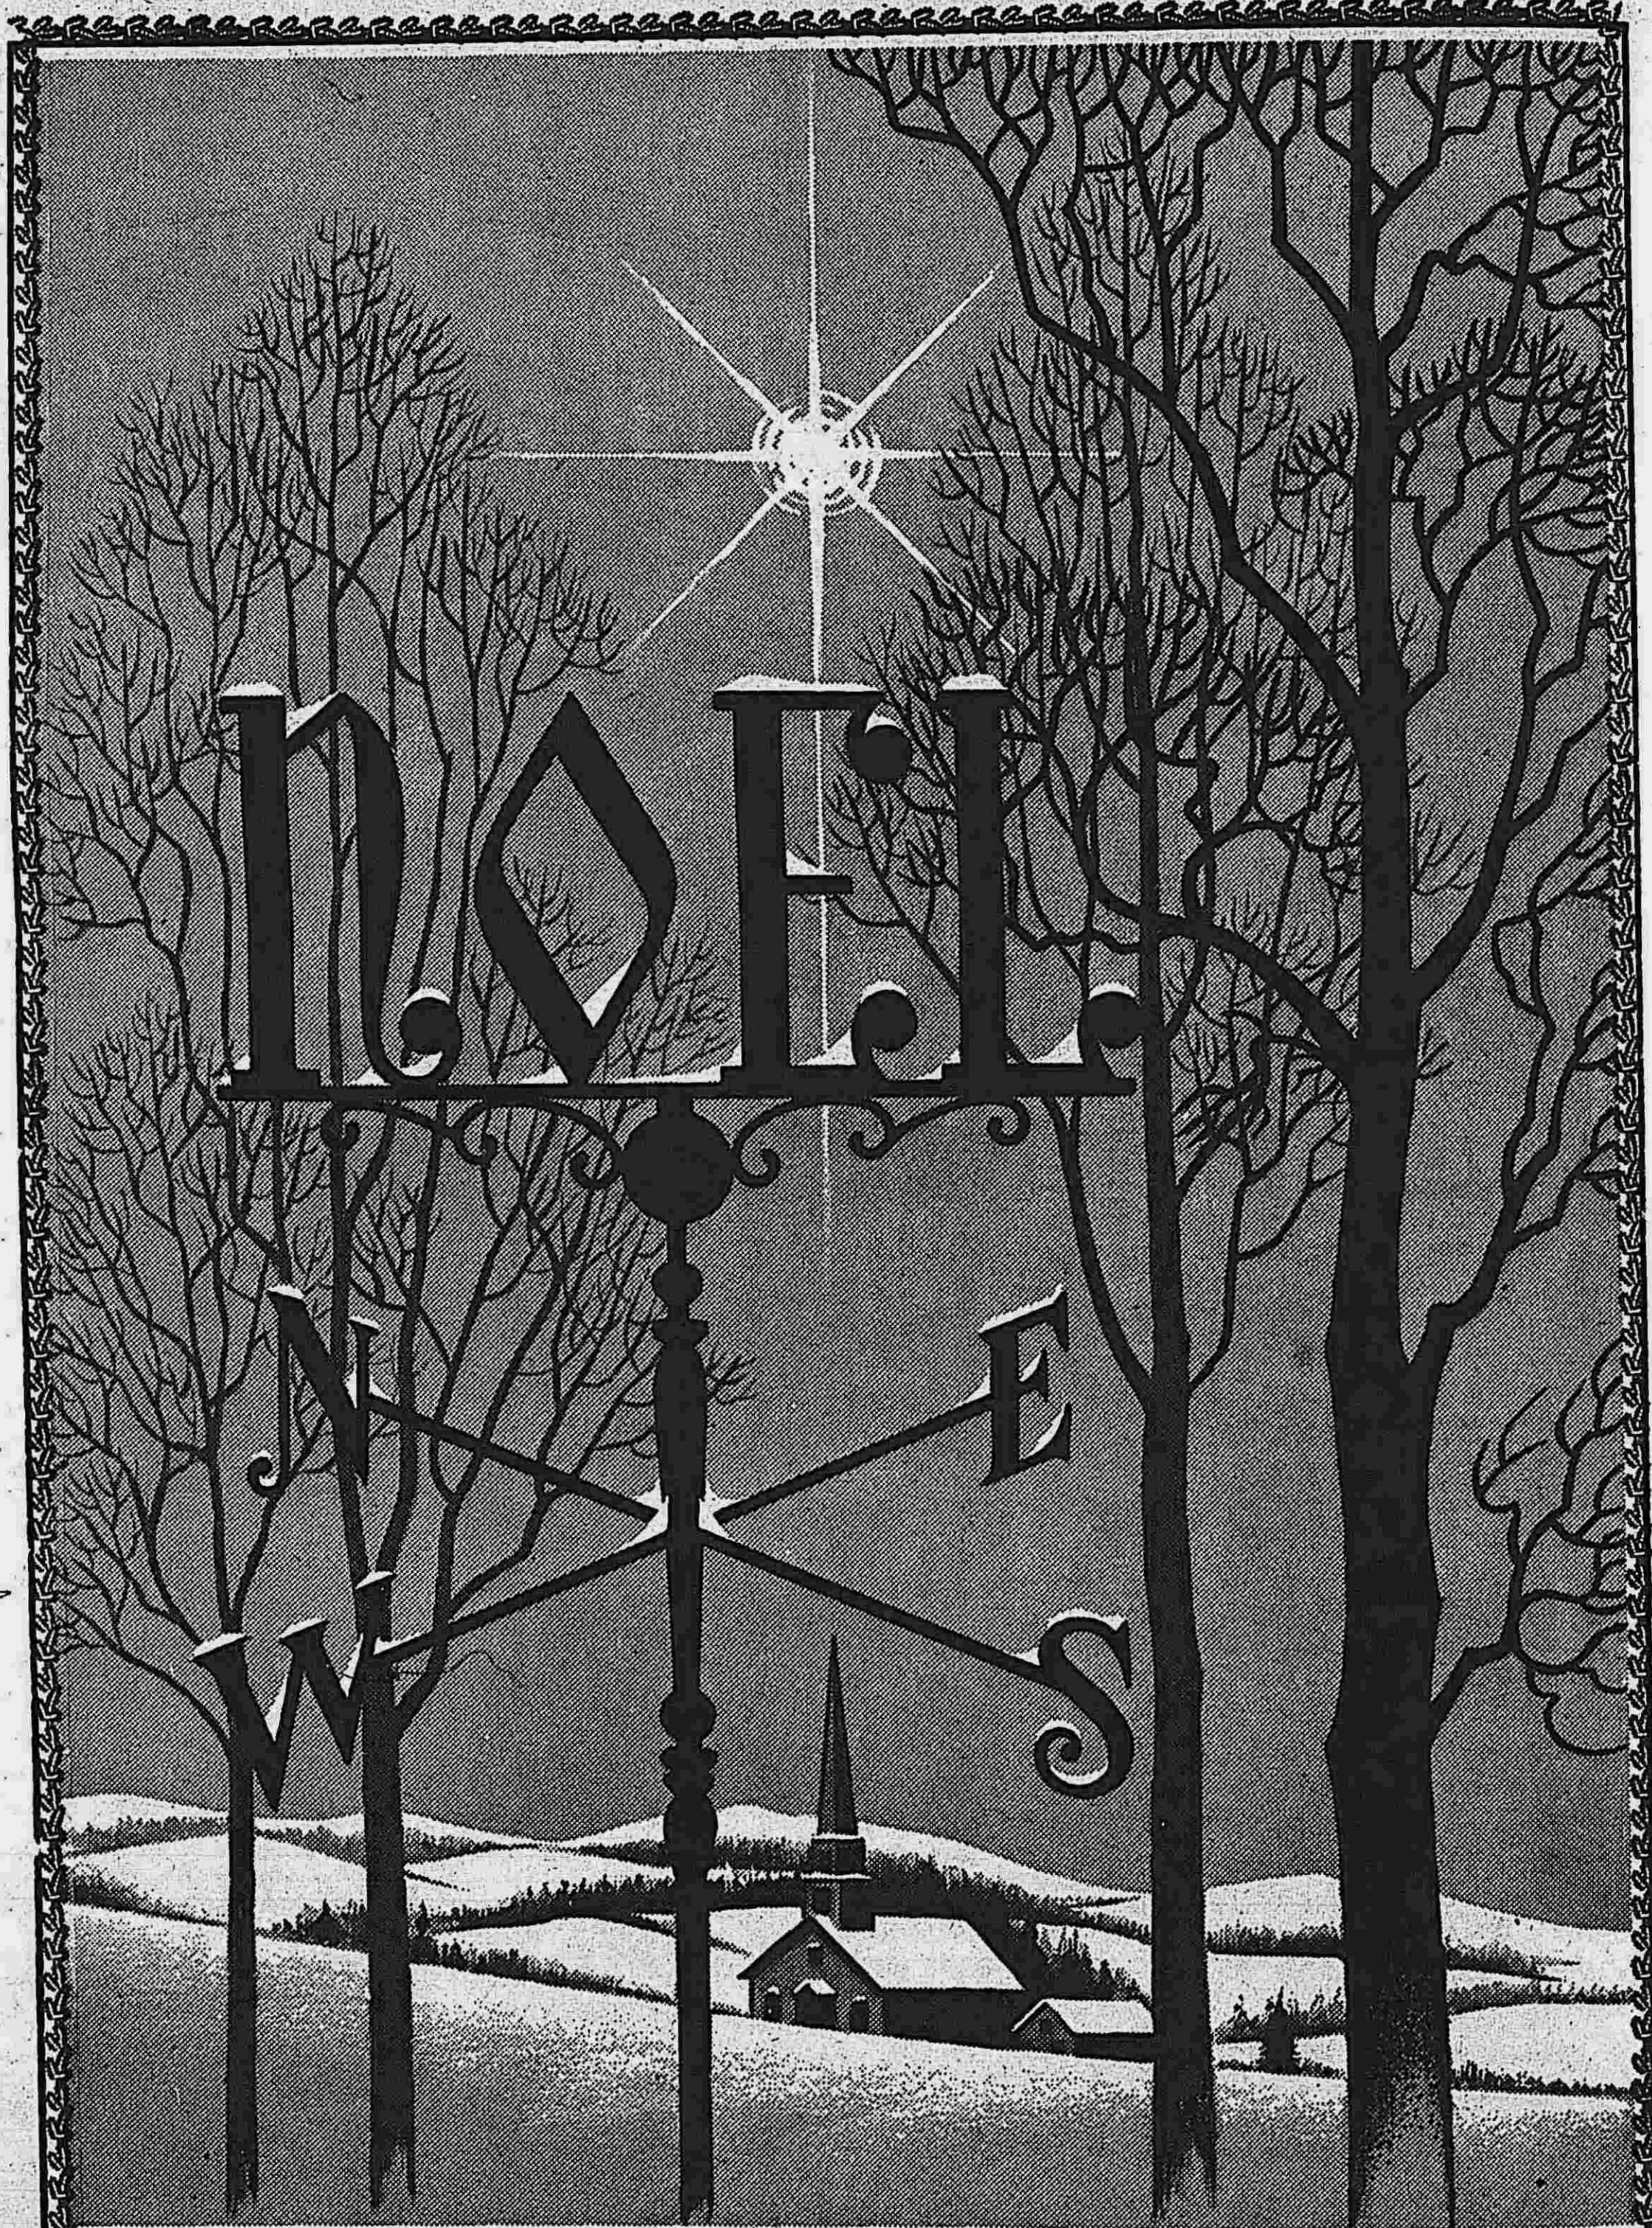

The suit which was brought against the County Board on September 1st asks that the Lake County Circuit Court declare the County Board's action null and void, and permit the construction of the planned development of the planned development and declare the county zoning ordinance void where it pertains to the development.

The action of the village board came as a result of a letter from Jack Hoogasian, Lake County State's Attorney asking various private citizens and taxing bodies to intervene in the case. It was pointed out by Ken Clark, Village Board Attorney that for the village to enter into the suit would be very costly and take a great deal of time. Although the planned development would be within 1 1/2 miles of the village the village proper would feel little impact from the development.

The high school district and the Grass Lake and Emmons grade school districts are more directly affected by the development and would have more direct interest in the suit.

AND PUPPY-DOG TAILS...

The name comes from an old poem, "What Are Little Boys Made Of?", which states they are made of "snails and bells and puppy-dog tails," which means they are made of just about everything. So in water-colors the puppy-dog tails means you use just about everything to get the effect you want. Experiment with crumpled paper, cotton, or sponge to SOP UP color from a blue wash and you might have lovely cumulus clouds. Use the same things to DAB ON paint and it might look like a forest of trees. Make all kinds of quasi brushes from reeds, feathers, straws, sticks and anything else that strikes your fancy to try.

There are various ways to keep pure white areas as you paint your pictures. Large white areas, like a side of a barn, are simply painted around the desired white area. But it is quite difficult to paint a smooth sky around the tiny white shapes of sea gulls, so you need to mask out the tiny shapes by one of our several methods.

You can color the gulls in with white crayon and paint over with the blue sky wash as wax resists water. However some artists do not like the crayon as it shows in the finished painting.

The gulls can be painted in with rubber cement; the blue sky painted over the dry rubber cement; and then when the wash is dry, remove the rubber cement by lightly rubbing with your finger or a spirit gum eraser.

Maskoid is a special liquid, purchased at art supply stores, and like rubber cement it is applied to the areas you wish to keep white. It is more fluid than rubber cement and can be a bit more readily applied. It is wise to wet the brush with a bit of soapy water before dipping into the Maskoid. This makes the brush easier to clean and prevents a pile-up of the rubbery substance in the bristles. The Maskoid can also be thinned with a bit of soapy water. After the Maskoid has dried the procedure is the same as for rubber cement.

There is also Frisket which is an excellent making material. It looks like very thin wax paper and is applied in the following manner. Tear a piece of Frisket paper slightly larger than the area you want to cover. Apply a thin coat of rubber cement to both the picture and the Frisket paper. Let both dry and then lay the Frisket paper of the drawing. It will adhere securely and allow the drawing to show thru. Cut with an Xacto knife all around the edge of the part that you wish to keep white and then peel away all the part that you wish to keep white and then peel away all the Frisket paper from the surrounding area. Rub any rubber cement off with a spirit gum eraser and you are then ready to paint over with the wash.

When the sky has dried you can remove the rest of the Frisket paper and any of the remaining rubber cement with the eraser. The white sea gulls will be the white of the paper.

Any of the masking methods would be fine for sails and masts in boat scenes, for snow flakes or mounds of snow on bushes and fence posts, and many other things too numerous to here state. Just remember, no matter what you use, it is the spontaneous, interesting effect you are after. Happy experimenting.

Next Week: AN EASY METHOD OF ENLARGING

The waiting area where blood donors offered their services to help Dale Chase was crowded all day long. There was such an over-abundant response that many had to be turned away.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT BECOMES A REALITY

Last Saturday night a little boy fell on the ice and twisted his ankle. It was just a little fall and just a minor twist of the ankle, but the little boy was rushed to the hospital. You see the little boy's name is Dale Chase, who has a disease that is known as hemophilia. He lacks an important clotting factor in his blood, internal hemorrhaging into any joint is a frequent problem, and the minor twist of an ankle was enough to set it off.

This was not the first time that Dale had been rushed to the hospital, he has received many pints of blood in the past, and in fact he is (or was) 140 pints of blood behind with the Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago.

On Sunday, December 17th, a blood drive was held to help replace the blood and to build up a stock for the future. It was sponsored by the Prince of Peace Mother's Club, Brownie Troop 126, and Junior Girl Scout Troop 216.

The response to the drive was greater than anyone had anticipated. Three hundred and two people called and made appointments to give blood. Some 180 pints of blood were drawn. As many as 75 people came in off the street to donate. Many people were turned away, because they had disqualified themselves in one way or another, but many of these people volunteered to donate the blood at a later date.

The First National Bank of Antioch employees were not able to give blood at this time, due to the fact they donated for one of their fellow employee's husband. This did not stop the bank from making a contribution, however, as they have pooled their money together instead of exchanging Christmas presents this year. The money that is collected will be doubled by the Bank itself and it will be donated to the Chase cause.

A regular board meeting of the Village of Antioch will be held on January 2, 1973 at 8:00 p.m. The date was changed because of the holiday.

Along the Way with Annie Mae

If you heard a lot of shouting last Saturday evening, you'd know the referendum passed. The kids at the basketball game were exultant! Thank you voters of Antioch, and all the people who put in so many hours - it was well worth it. Ask Dick Kessler.

Terry and Carol Boston returned from a lovely two weeks vacation from Acapulco, Mexico. What weather to return to.

A little bad luck has happened to two Antioch youths. Tracy West is walking around with a broken arm, and Dave Gutowski has a cast on his right arm with a broken bone in his wrist - Hurry and mend, so you can enjoy some winter sports.

Birthday wishes this week go to Del Jahneke on Dec. 20. She is one of our favorite people. Also warm wishes to Mary Lorr, Holly Markwart and Rob Korinak who celebrate on Christmas the 25th. and Louise Gutowski missed it by a day and celebrates on Dec. 26. Happys to Harold Gaston on the 25th of Dec. and to Tim O'Neil and Jerri Gutowski on the 28th and to Bernard De Vries on the 29th, and to Ellen Flint, Rosemary Hevrdejs, and Frank Benes III on the 30th of Dec. We will let Roger Drije finish the month off on the 31st. May you all have a happy year. Happy birthday to Hannah Vistain who celebrates on Dec. 27.

Many of the area businessmen enjoyed the lovely 4th annual Champaigne Breakfast hosted by the First National Bank in their new bank social room on December 13. Nearly 300 people attended. Who said that the "bubbly" couldn't be served for breakfast - that beats orange juice any day. It was delicious, along with a lovely breakfast of scrambled eggs, toast, sausage, etc.

Parties galore last week. On Monday evening, the Lions Club held their annual party. Many unusual gifts were exchanged. Wonder how many of them will be open under the tree for all to see?

Saturday nite the Antioch Republican Club Christmas party was held for about 60 members at Steve's Channel Inn. and also that evening, Wm & Mary Barr gave a dinner party, for the Rescue Squad men and their wives. Truly a beautiful thought!

Did you hear of a certain fireman who is planning an "addition" to his house and family? GREAT!!!

Hear tell Deacon Gregory of St. Peters tried to move the pillars from the driveway of the rectory!!!!

Love to all.....

Annie Mae

Rust Proofing Con't.

The normal steps in finishing and painting car body metal are:

1. Degreasing and cleaning metal surfaces
2. Treating with phosphate to provide microscopic anchor points on surface for holding paint.
3. Prime-painting the surface
4. Finish-painting surface with multiple coats.

Done properly, the above procedure allows no space between paint and metal for moisture to seep in and start corrosion. However, scratches, bends, dents, chips and breaks in the finish-coated metal offer areas which allow moisture to enter and begin the rusting process.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

"In the midst of our joy and happiness during the Holiday season, we should pause awhile to think of those who are still denied these basic freedoms - our prisoners of war (POWs) in southeast Asia and their bereaved families here in America" states Mrs. Jean Keehn of Libertyville, district national security chairman, 10th District American Legion Auxiliary. "Nearly all signs are pointing toward an early peaceful settlement of the war, but until that takes place, we must not slacken our efforts, not only for the release of the POW'S, but to learn what has happened to the many men who were reported as missing in action (MIA). Our letters will show that we are deeply concerned with the fate of these American servicemen. Mrs. Keehn says further that anyone wishing more information regarding where to send letters, etc., should contact either her or Mrs. Samuel Pettigrew, the the Antioch Unit chairman.

Other aspects of the national security program of the American Legion and the Auxiliary is preparedness. Both organizations strongly urge and support legislation that will strengthen our defenses against any aggressor. According to Mrs. Keehn, "National Security also includes personal security. The Auxiliary actively supports good citizenship, and asks the support of leaders in all levels of government who insist that law and order prevail. The Auxiliary promotes and supports the R.O.T.C. program, and the drive for purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds."

Visiting wounded Vietnam veterans at the hospitals is another facet of this program.

The American Legion Auxiliary also has valuable information regarding scholarships available through the armed forces, to student nurses, college students majoring in nursing and high school seniors considering a nursing career. These armed forces scholarships provide tuition, board and rooms and books. A lack of funds is no longer a reason for not pursuing a career of nursing if one has the desire.

Nearly all Units contribute to Radio Free Europe program which is the Voice of Freedom behind the Iron Curtain. All Units are requested to donate to the Americanism-National Security Fund, which supports the annual State Patriotic Conference; the purchasing of U.S. Savings Bonds; recruitment program for nurses; participation in naturalization ceremonies; ROTC awards; and support of the U.S.O., including a large gift given annually.

Mrs. Everett Ainsworth, Lake Forest, District President, asks all unit chairmen to send their semi-annual reports of their program to district chairmen by January 2nd, 1973.

The district junior activities co-chairman, Mrs. Ray Rathmann of Antioch, reports that some 50 10th District "Juniors" and their leaders went Christmas carolling at the Lake County Nursing Home and the Riverwoods Nursing Home in Libertyville Dec. 15th. Afterwards, the girls had a Christmas party meeting, and grab bag exchange with Juniors present from Lake Zurich, Antioch, Mundelein and Libertyville. Antioch Juniors there include Cheryl Stadick, Sandra Stadick, Colleen and Dianna De Vries and Susan Rathmann.

Mr and Mrs. Jedele help themselves to a lovely breakfast that was given to the businessmen of the Antioch area by the First National Bank of Antioch. Fred Walpole, Jim Dayton and Ray Jenssen followed. This is the fourth annual Champagne Breakfast the bank has put on. This year it was held in the social room of the new bank building. (staff photo)

That's when gentle electric drying really pays off.

Clothes are an expensive investment.

That's why it's nice to have the gentleness of an electric dryer on hand. An electric dryer is very, very gentle on clothes because it dries with a very gentle kind of heat. Radiant heat. That means it dries things the same nice way the sun does.

Many models even have an electronic sensor inside the dryer door to make sure things never over-dry. That's really important when it comes to permanent press.

An electric dryer is as gentle as a dryer can be to clothes.

Remember that the next time you invest in a new dress.

SEQUOIT SUZIES

The Sequoit Suzies 4-H club held their December seventh meeting at the home of Patti Gross. Co-hostesses were Theresa and Mary Joern.

The girls started off the night by making candy Christmas trees for an orphanage. They held the business meeting during which time a discussion on "Share the Fun" took place. Mrs. Van Patten went on to show the girls a basic stitch in Stitchery, which they tried to match. Also, a new member was introduced, Ellen Kreuger. Afterwards refreshments were served and Christmas Carols were sung.

The next meeting will be held in the middle of January at the home of Kathy Walsh.

WARRIORS HEAR TALK ON PHOTOGRAPHY

The Sequoit Warriors Held their December fifth meeting at the home of Bill Retner.

The members went on to enroll in several more projects. They also decided to make popcorn balls for the Allendale School, and to go Christmas Caroling the same night.

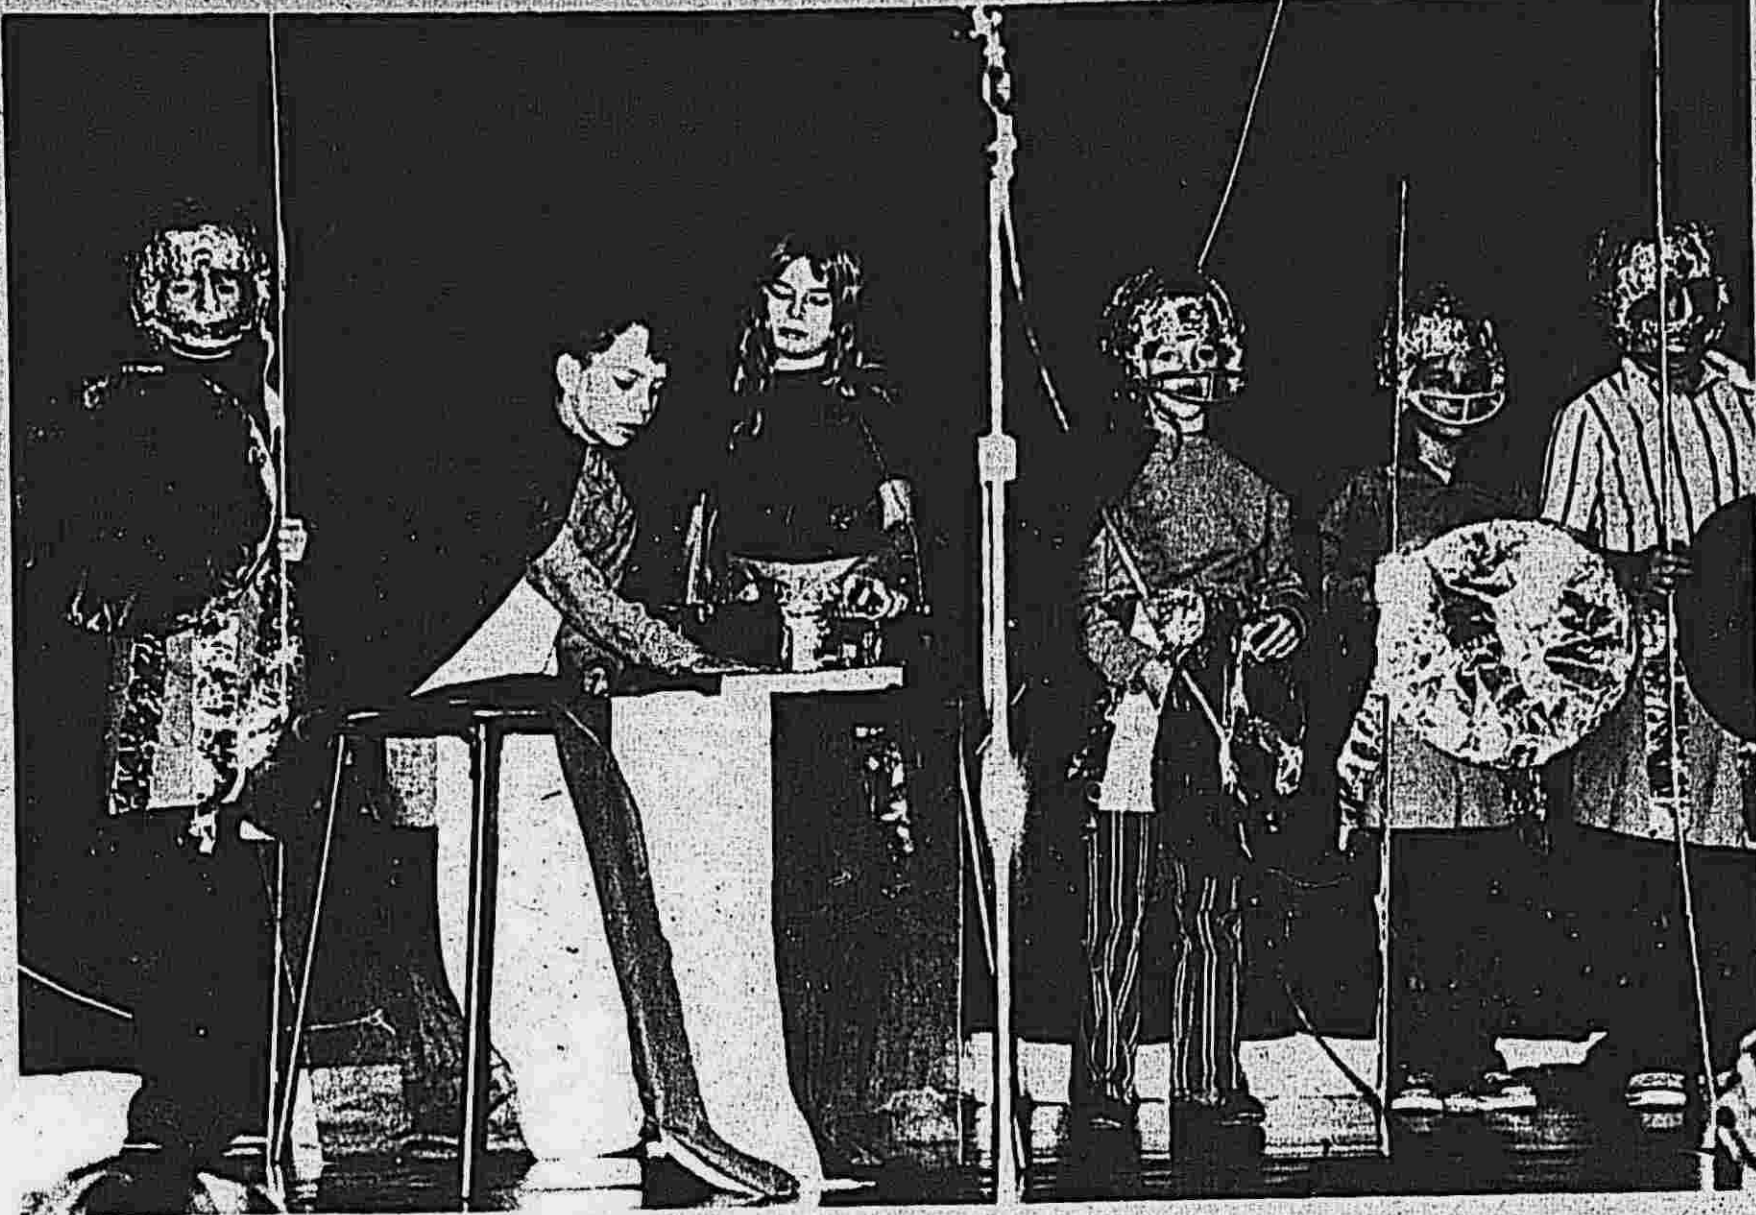

Refreshments were then served. The next meeting will be held in January.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM NEWCOMERS

CAST OF HUNDREDS

A beautiful Christmas Pageant was presented by the students of the Antioch Lower Grade School on Monday evening Dec. 18th. A capacity crowd of parents and families filled the gym for the presentation.

The play, "He Is Come! The Messiah!" by Natalie Wagner was warmly received.

Many, many hours of rehearsals were required to co-ordinate this many faceted production. Nearly one hundred students were in costumes portraying roles of angels, pages, shepherds, readers, Roman soldiers, citizens, desertmen, and the Holy Family. All of the costumes were colorful and elaborate.

An additional two hundred and fifty students were members of the chorus. They sang ten selections of traditional Christmas carols. Three soloists and a vocal trio added to the variety of the musical presentation.

The childrens performance of the first Christmas left everyone in the true spirit of the season.

How to Have a Safer Christmas

When we think of Christmas time, all the joys of the season come to mind: the sharing of gifts, excitement of children, and the beauty of a brightly-ornamented tree.

Many families, however, have somewhat grimmer Christmas memories—brought on by just one unsafe act which caused a needless, tragic accident.

To help you have a safe Christmas season, Underwriters' Laboratories—a not-for-profit organization testing for public safety—offers the following tips.

★ DISCONNECT LIGHT STRINGS WHEN WORKING WITH THEM. Additionally, never try to stretch the strings or extension wiring. Only use extensions or string lights outside if the label so specifies.

★ NEVER OVERLOAD CIRCUITS. By placing more current on a wire than it can handle, you run the risk of overheating and possibly causing a fire. Look for the capability of the wiring.

★ WATCH PLACEMENT OF ELECTRICAL FIXTURES. Keep them out of children's reach, and never place them close to flammable material.

★ INSPECT ALL WIRING. Watch for insulation deterioration, especially if you've stored the wiring for a long period. Buy only UL-labeled string lights and cords.

★ CHECK ALL LIGHTS CAREFULLY. Make certain bulbs are not loose in their sockets. Use rubber light socket gaskets, and replace if needed. Use lights only on UL-listed artificial trees to minimize chances of fire.

By following these safety tips, you can assure your family a truly merry Christmas.

Play It Safe With Extension Cords

Throughout the year the extension cord is an object often abused and constantly overworked. The holiday season is no exception and is usually the time of the year when the extension cord is most often mistreated. Such misuse can turn this rather innocuous item into one capable of destroying life and property. Given the proper attention, however, it is safe and useful.

According to Underwriters' Laboratories, a not-for-profit organization testing for public safety, one of the most important rules is to match the extension cord with the same size and type cord supplied with the appliance.

Secondly, an extension cord should never be overloaded. By adding the number of watts plugged into the extension, safety of the electric load can be determined.

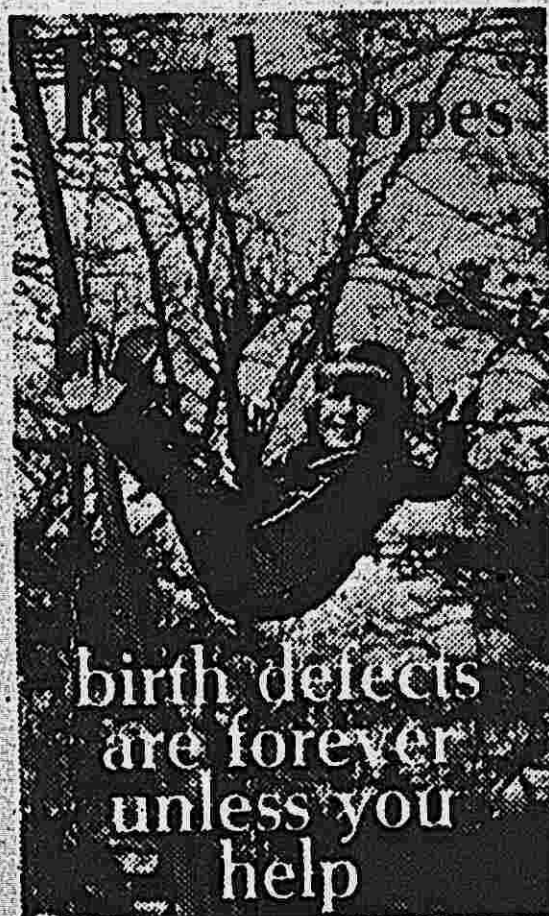

Periodic examination of all extension cords in use can eliminate a potential fire or shock hazard. Check all screw connections, which should be tight with all wire strands held firmly under the screws. Inspect the cord for breaks, which often occur near the plug. Look for frayed and broken insulation, and replace rather than repair defective cords.

The placement of cords is also an important factor. Cords that are near a source of heat; supported on nails; placed under rugs, through doorways, across walkways or tables are dangerous. Only cords indicated to be "oilproof" or "water-resistant", should be near oil or moisture.

Finally, all extension cords should bear the familiar label of Underwriters' Laboratories.

IT'S THAT TIME OF THE YEAR.... WHEN WE PAUSE AND THINK OF OUR MANY AND WONDERFUL FRIENDS. AND AMONG YOUR GIFTS, PLEASE COUNT OUR RENEWED PLEDGE TO SERVE YOU FAITHFULLY IN TIME TO COME AND EXTEND OUR HEARTIEST CHRISTMAS WISHES.

Their Christmas potluck supper party meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m., December 20th, at the Antioch American Legion Home. A Christmas gift exchange will be held.

The three Brownie troops from Emmons School, Channel Lake School and the Antioch Grade School combined forces and gladdened the hearts of the patients at the Zion Nursing Home in Zion, with their singing of Christmas carols on December 9th. The three leaders who accompanied them were Mrs. Betty Baker, Mrs. Kay Doty and Mrs. Donna Dahlberg.

ILLINOIS DRIVERS FAIL LICENSE TEST

Under a state law, which went into effect Jan. 1, 1969, all of Illinois 6.6 million drivers will be retested by 1978. In 1971, on their first examination out of three possible attempts, there were well over 130,000 who failed the written part of the exam and 142,000 who failed the Road Sign portion of the test. Experts explain - "Some people think that just because they've been driving for 10, 20 or 30 years, they don't have to know that the new Rules of the Road. They figure they know it all." If your license expires within the next year, you may be one of the many thousands that will be re-examined. Now there is good news if you're nervous about taking the written examination. You can now purchase your own sample self-scoring test paper, complete with questions, answers and road signs to help you pass the State exam on that important day. Introductory price just $6 plus 75 cents handling. (Check or money order only).

Christian Science Churches

How did Christ Jesus heal the sick? He proved that Man is the reflection of God when he healed the blind man in St. John 9.

Commentary from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy includes this explanation: "Jesus" spiritual origin and understanding enabled him to demonstrate the facts of being, to prove irrefutably how spiritual Truth destroys material error, heals sickness, and overcomes death."

Sunday's Lesson-Sermon is "Christ Jesus". Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rte 173 & Harden, Antioch, Illinois begin at 11 A.M. All are welcome.

BITS AND PIECES

By: Taffy Engelhardt

The efforts of many concerned people, young and old, did not go to waste - the referendum was finally passed. If you were at the McHenry game Saturday night, you probably could feel the tenseness everywhere while awaiting the results of the day's voting. When finally announced, the entire gymnasium seemed to be overjoyed and our excitement could certainly be heard. From then on, the game lived up. Although we did lose the nonconference game by one point in an overtime, we had won the important battle of the day. Our thanks and appreciation to all the parents who stayed up many nights working for our education. They deserve much credit. Friday night's game showed our Sequoia a Victory against Lake Forest, an important contender in our conference. We hope this Friday's game against Round Lake will be as successful. And don't forget about the Rockford

"SEQUOIT HAPPENINGS"

Holiday Tourney next week. The wrestlers need some fans too!!!

Christmas Dance will be a bit different this year. In the past it has been a formal dance, closed to freshmen. Hoping for a better turnout, the seniors decided to make it semi-formal, and open to all. We're expecting a large turnout. "Snowfrost Fantasy" will be held from 8:00 - 11:00 on December 21st. The members of it's court are: Girls: Sue Bartlett, Wendy Ericksen, Linda Lagerstrom, Mary Jo Parpan, and Kin Schkapich. Boys: Keith Larsen, Tim Mieure, Kirk Moran, John Thain and Ron Tuminello. Congratulations! Also, we would like to see a large turnout for coronation, which is at 10:30 and is open to the public. The senior class will vote on king and queen next week.

The annual Christmas concert for the band and choir was on Sunday night at 8:00. Attendance was excellent. The groups that performed were the Wind Ensemble, Freshman Girls Choir, Acapella Choir and Swing Choir, all directed by Mr. Brooke. The performance went well. But we especially would like to thank Mr. Brooke for all of his hard work and many hours he has put in this year, preparing and instructing both the bands and the choirs. He's doing a tremendous job and we love him.

Congratulations to this year's Sequoia (A-Club) Court. The girls chosen are: Rita Haley, Robin Ellis, Dawn Woods, Sandi

Stewart and Taffy Engelhardt.

Before Christmas arrives, we're all so busy. Last minute shopping, baking, working, schoolwork and cooking keeps us all busy. But let's not forget the real meaning of Christmas and enjoy our holiday season. Merry Christmas everyone and I hope Santa is good to all of you!

EMMONS CRUSHES CONFERENCE FOE

The Emmons Raiders, who have captured two successive conference titles in both divisions of basketball, opened their conference season rolling over Grass Lake.

In the 7th grade division, Grass Lake opened an early 6-2 lead and closed out a low scoring quarter with a 6-4 lead. The Emmons crew came out hot in the second quarter. With Dave Sheedlo and Scott Gallagher playing aggressively on the boards and Darren O'Brien and Greg Bodin leading the defense, the Raiders out scored Grass Lake 11-1 in the quarter.

The Raiders over the final two periods outscored the Braves 15 to 10 to take home an easy 30-17 victory. Emmons was led in scoring by Robby Nauman with 8 and Gallagher with 7, while Bodin added 5. The losers were led by Rick Motley with 7.

On the 8th grade level, Emmons captured a crushing 42-17 win. The keys to victory were balanced team scoring and pressure defense.

Emmons, a much smaller team, out hustled Grass Lake on the floor causing many turnovers. Grass Lake's Braves came undone in the first quarter under pressure of the Raider defense. The Raiders, after building a 10-4 first quarter lead, continued to steal pass after pass and caused many turnovers to take in a 22-10 lead at halftime.

The Raiders outscored Grass Lake 12-3 in the third quarter and coasted to an easy victory.

Tracy Sodman poured in 10 of his game high points in the first half to lead the Raider scoring attack. Bill Dubek also hit in double figures with 10, while Terry O'Brien, John Kakacek, and John Eder added 8, 6, and 4 respectively. Jerry Schmidt, Sodman, and Eder led the Raiders in rebounding with six each. Grass Lake was led by Scott Nohava with 8 points, while Pat Mullins added 7.

WRESTLERS DID IT AGAIN

Last weekend the wrestling Sequoits were victorious in a big way, they won four out of four matches and they did it with style. Several of the Sequoits are still suffering with the flu, including Tom Rayniak, but this has not held them back.

On Friday December 15, the Sequoits beat Lake Forest with a total of 30 points to their 13 points. The following day they continued their win as they topped West Rockford's 21 points with 36 of their own. The same day Bradford was only able to score a mere ten points while the Sequoits piled up 36 points. The third match that day brought Antioch and Janesville together and the Sequoits emerged with a startling 44 points to their 16.

Wrestler Dirk Dietz did an especially good job over the weekend with a record of 3-0-1. His season record is 5-1-1. Wrestlers Keith Larsen, John Roberts, Dennis Dyer, and Steve Shaffer have also been doing a fine job.

Wrestling coach DeRousse said, "We did a creditable job last weekend, and we accumulated a lot of points. We are actually looking pretty good, the county Tournament coming up should be between us North Chicago and Mundelein."

The County Tournament will be held on December 22nd at 6:30 pm at North Chicago and on December 23rd at 1:00 pm and at 7:00 pm.

GIVE AND TAKE WEEKEND FOR SEQUOITS

Last weekend the Sequoits played two extremely close games. On Friday night, they topped Lake Forest by only two points, winning the game with a score of 52 to 50. This was a very important win as Lake Forest is a conference team and had not been defeated until Friday nights game.

On Saturday night the Sequoits took on McHenry, a non-conference team, and lost by one point during the last minute of over-time. When the final buzzer sounded Antioch held 77 points to McHenry's 78 points.

Coach Andrews said, "The kids played a good game on both nights, but we made some mistakes that hurt us during the last quarter of Saturday nights game."

Another thing that hurt the Sequoits in the last quarter of that game, was the fact that Tim Mieuire drew his fifth personal foul and left the game. At that time there was only one and a half minutes on the clock and Antioch was ahead by three points.

During the first quarter of the game the Sequoits played a man to man defensive game, but this did not seem to be keeping McHenry in their place. The Sequoits then switched their technique to zone defensive. Coach Andrews commented that "the kids adjusted to the change very nicely."

Tim Mieuire was the high scorer that night with a total of 27 points to his name. Mike Gutowski had 15 points to his credit and Mark Andrews accumulated 13 points.

Tim Mieuire was also the high scorer in Friday nights game with 16 points with Mark Andrews close behind him with 12 points.

One of the highlights of both nights was when the referendum passage was announced at Saturday's game and the fans gave Coach Andrews, who headed the referendum committee, a two minute standing ovation.

The Rockford Tournament will start on December 27th. Antioch will be playing their first game on December 28th when they play Winnebago at 3:30 p.m. If the Sequoits win that game they will play again on December 29th at 8:30 pm. There are two games on December 30th, one at 2:30 pm and one at 8:30 pm. There will also be consolation games.

This coming weekend they will play Round Lake on Friday at 8:00 pm. This is an important game for the Sequoits as Round Lake is the only other team in the conference, besides Antioch, who had not been defeated and holds a 3-0 record.
